MARRIED LOVE 3 PROGRAM

For married couples with children in college or older.

Course Description:

For couples married 25 years or more, Married Love III is an opportunity to build on your life together, gain fresh perspectives and chart new courses with renewed commitment and excitement.

- Men and women are different and complementary- learn how to appreciate and integrate the differences that enable one another to grow and flourish.
- Communication is a key component of a successful marriage- learn effective communication practices that enable husband and wife to work as a team.
- Creating time to bond deepens affection in a marriage- rediscover the powerful influence and primacy of spousal love, the first love and foundation of family life.

Nests that empty, then fill back up with grandchildren. Careers that are ramping up or winding down. Old dreams unfulfilled and new dreams beckoning.

Does midlife have both of you asking, "What now?"

Please note that this course will be geared toward married couples with children in college or older.

All general sessions will be held in person.
